Statement of Explanation

This statement explains how the operating procedures of Peoples Rural Telephone Cooperative are in compliance with 47 CFR S64.2001-64.2009.

Peoples Rural Telephone Cooperative uses CPNI only in compliance with the rules and regulations set forth by the Federal Communications Commission. As required, employees have been properly trained as to what information may be shared to market services to customers and what information may not be shared or used to market to customers. In addition, a disciplinary process has been put in place, along with a Supervisory Review Process.

Customers have been notified about CPNI issues via bill message, following all guidelines set forth in CPNI rules. Customers will be notified every two years of their right to opt out of the use of their CPNI information for the purpose of marketing products and services to them. An Annual Compliance Certification is available for inspection in the business office of Peoples Rural Telephone Cooperative.

Any questions regarding CPNI should be directed to Keith Gabbard, General Manager of Peoples Rural Telephone Cooperative.
